

NEW YORK VOTE CHEERS WILSON

President of Opinion That Progressives Will Join
Democratic Ranks.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Sept. 21.—Victory for the democratic ticket in New York state in the November elections was predicted by Pres't Wilson Wednesday night following the receipt of returns from the primaries Tuesday. The president indicated his belief that progressive voters in New York will support the democrats.

Taking his first active part in the campaign, Mr. Wilson sent telegrams of congratulation to William F. McCombs, the democratic nominee for United States senate and to Judge Samuel Seabury, the nominee for governor.

BETTER STRIFE SEEN IN REPUBLICAN RANKS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The vote of the republican primaries has revealed a condition of bitter factional strife in the ranks of the republican party in New York state which it is predicted will prove an embarrassing to Candidate Hughes upon his return as any of factional conflicts encountered by him upon his speechmaking tour through the west.

A striking feature was the decisive defeat of Robert Bacon, former member of the firm of J. P. Morgan and Co., and ex-ambassador to France, for the republican nomination for United States senator, backed by powerful financial interests and supported by Elihu Root, William Barnes of Albany and other leading members of the New York old guard who have rallied to the standard of Mr. Hughes. Mr. Bacon made a desperate effort to capture the nomination. His supporters feel keenly his defeat, as the primaries were bitterly contested and unusual sums were expended in the campaign for his nomination. Late returns indicate that his opponent, former congressman, William L. Gilder of Brooklyn, won by 11,000 votes.

In the gubernatorial contest also the feeling ran high and Mr. Hughes' campaign managers are plainly alarmed lest many republican voters who opposed Gov. Whitman at the primaries may follow the example of the New York Tribune, republican, which recently announced its intention to bolt Mr. Whitman's nomination if he succeeded.

How to Judge a Woman by Her Hair

There are always the well-known and semi-humorous methods, such as saying brunettes are quick-tempered. But there is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge a woman's neatness. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good preparation made expressly for shampooing. You can enjoy the very best by getting some canthors from your druggist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water when your shampoo is all ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff, and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Mrs. Barnes is Nervous Wreck

CHICAGO.—Mrs. Iva Williams Barnes, under indictment as the slayer of her husband, James R. Barnes, who was shot during a stroll in Washington park, has been released on bonds, and went from the jail to a sanitarium.

"Mrs. Barnes is a nervous wreck as a result of her imprisonment at the jail and she will be given immediate medical attention," an attorney for her, George H. Guenther, said.

Before leaving the jail she consented to pose for photographers. Garbed wholly in black, she was a pathetic figure as she sat before the camera.

Mrs. Barnes left the jail in company with her attorneys and her father, James Williams. Her first inquiry was for details regarding the funeral of her husband.

She was released on $25,000 bonds, which were signed before Judge Fitch by three women, Mrs. Rachel Epstein, 3104 Douglas blvd.; Mrs. Mary Marubio, 1245 Wells st., and Mrs. May Rosenthal, 1521 Turner av.

CALDER LEADS BACON BY 7,000 VOTES

Returns Missing From About 350
Rural Districts—Vote
Heaviest Upstate.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—With returns missing from only about 350 districts in the state, most of them in remote rural sections, William A. Calder had a lead Wednesday night of approximately 7,000 votes over Robert Bacon, his rival for the nomination for United States senator in the republican primary Tuesday.

In the upstate counties Bacon ran far ahead of his opponent. The primary vote was relatively much lighter in New York city than upstate. Calder led in greater New York.

Both republican and democratic state leaders professed tonight to be satisfied with the showing of Gov. Charles S. Whitman and Judge Samuel Seabury, their respective candidates for governor in the progressive primary. The vote for Whitman with 1,566 districts lacking was 10,137 and for Seabury 6,813. Less than forty percent of the enrolled progressives in the state went to the polls.

Most of the great battles which were fought long ago were over in a day. The famous engagements—Waterloo, six hours; Sedan, 12 1-2 hours; Gravelotte, nine hours; Mars la Tour, 10 hours; Koniggratz, eight hours; Alma, three and one-half hours; Leipzig, three days; Gettysburg, three days.

Reporter Writes Suicide Story Then Kills Self

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 21.—Harry Howland, a newspaper reporter, wrote the story of his proposed suicide, it developed Wednesday, and then carried out his plan, excepting that he took poison instead of shooting himself as he had said in his story that he would.

Howland took poison at his desk in a newspaper office here Tuesday night. The copy was found after his death. Howland had grieved over the death of his wife and child in Kansas City a year ago.

In his story Howland detailed how "after writing the story of his death and suicide, he had shot himself outside the newspaper office." He wrote: "The weapon he used to end his life was borrowed from — on the pretext that Howland had been assigned on a story in a remote part of the city where frequent holdups had been committed." A blank space to be filled in with the time of the suicide was left in the copy. The story closed with "thirty."

EVERYTHING GOING UP

Food, Clothing and Luxuries Advancing at Alarming Rate.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Prices of foods, clothes, luxuries and materials have advanced alarmingly within the last year, according to a table of comparative prices compiled here Wednesday. Merchants and producers say that prices for food will be even higher this winter.

Every person feels the increased price in practically every purchase, it was said. Food prices vary, according to quality and quantity. For the small purchaser at retail they are higher. Wholesalers said that canning houses all over the country have announced that their deliveries will be only one third of the normal amount. The vegetable crop, it was declared, was only half what was expected.

Canned fruits will be thirty percent higher and canned vegetables will be advanced from 15 to 20 percent, according to wholesalers.

Cigar jobbers raised their prices this week. Five cent cigars which the dealer had been getting for $21 or $22 a thousand have been advanced to $35. Better grades of cigars also have been advanced.

Cotton goods have advanced between 25 and 35 percent. Woolen also have kept pace with cottons. In the best lines of women's shoes, the prices have almost been doubled, dealers said.

FUND FOR WAR RELIEF IS HUGE

American Contributions to 60
Societies Are Estimated at $28,896,277.36.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—American contributions to the sixty principal war relief societies are estimated at $28,896,277.36, by the new year book of the Carnegie endowment for international peace, being distributed Wednesday.

Seven million dollars of this amount went into the $80,000,000 raised from all sources for the commission of relief in Belgium. In addition, the Belgian relief fund raised $3,085,000, other societies added $134,000, making a grand total for Belgium of $10,269,000.

Twelve organizations raised more than $2,000,000 for France specifically, while $594,000 was raised for England, $12,000 for Russia, and $313,000 for Serbia. This, with the Belgian total, makes a grand total for the entente allies of over $13,000,000, not including some $3,000,000 of American Red Cross funds which were very largely used in allied countries. The German Red Cross received $2,750,000 from this country with three German-American relief bodies bringing the entire central powers contribution $2,750,000.

Contributions for dependent nationalities affected by the war's ravages total over $3,000,000, for the largest single fund of this sort being that of the American Jewish relief committee, with $4,000,000. To this should be added almost $900,000 more from the central committee for the relief of Jews and $323,000 from the people's relief committee for the Jewish war sufferers.

The Poles have received $473,000 and the Syrians and Armenians $430,000.

The American Red Cross has received from all sources, $3,231,000 including $651,000 from its New York state board.

HUGHES OUTLINES PLAN TO GET AMERICAN RIGHTS

Proposes to Protect on Land Sea
Lives and Commerce Without Fear and Unflinchingly.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 21.—Charles E. Hughes before a cheering audience that filled the big auditorium here Wednesday night, outlined his attitude toward the protection of American rights as follows:

"I propose that we shall protect and enforce American rights on land and sea without fear and unflinchingly with respect to American lives, American property and American commerce. We have no untested policies, no secret understandings, no intrigues. We stand foursquare to the world, representing the United States and its interests and its interests alone, first, last and all the time."

The Underwood tariff, he called a measure "that must be undone if we are to have a sure basis of prosperity in this country." He reiterated that the anti-trust law instead of being clarified by definition had been made "more uncertain."

The federal reserve act, the nominee said, far from being a democratic measure, pure and simple, was taken in great part from material supplied by a republican commission and a draft of a republican bill.

The child labor law, Mr. Hughes said, failed to protect hundreds of thousands of children at work in various states under democratic administrations.

The federal workman's compensation law, the nominee reiterated, should be made to protect others than the federal employees under its scope. It should extend to all persons engaged in pursuits of interstate commerce.

SAYS STATE PROSPECT FOR DEMOCRATS GOOD

Vance McCormick, National Chairman, Gives His View of Conditions in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—Announcement has reached this city that Chairman Vance McCormick of the democratic party in an interview given out in New York, had declared conditions in Indiana were extremely favorable to the democratic party. There is complete assurance in the Hoosier state that Woodrow Wilson will carry the majority of the presidential votes, Mr. McCormick said, and he also contended that his reports from leaders from many western states were very favorable.

"The party is united, more militant than ever before, and things look bright for democracy in all that region," he said. McCormick was one of the leading figures here at the Marshall notification meeting.

Announcements from Chicago to the headquarters here, say Gov. David I. Walsh of Massachusetts will speak in Indiana for the democrats, October 16 and 17. Dudley Field Malone of New York, inspector of customs for the port of New York, will appear in this state October 25 and 26. Matthew Hale of Massachusetts, formerly one of the strongest of the progressive party's leaders, will deliver addresses in the state for the democratic party Oct. 31.

Plans are already on foot to make the closing of the campaign by Vice Pres't Thomas R. Marshall, at Fort Wayne, November 4, the high mark in the national campaign in Indiana. Fort Wayne, it is being remarked also was the spot where John A. M. Adair, candidate for governor, opened his real campaign.
